Request for Inclusion on Sex-Specific Therapist Resource List

The Child Molestation Research & Prevention Institute publishes a national list of treatment providers on its website at childmolestationprevention.org. This list may also be published in other resource materials. For inclusion, sex-specific therapists and agencies must provide cognitive-behavioral treatments, refer their clients/patients to physicians for medications, if needed, and perform objective testing related to sexual interest. (The objective testing requirement is waived for practices that treat only children and teenagers.) If you would like to be considered for this resource list, please answer the following questions, sign and date the form, and return it to:

CMRPI, 1151 Harbor Bay Parkway, Suite 121, Alameda, CA 94502 or email form to contact@cmrpi.org.
